

MASTER OF URBAN DESIGN CAPSTONE PROJECT FINAL REVIEWS SPRING 2013

4/30

10:00am

Antonia Marinucci – Erieview, Cleveland: Economic + Physical Reimagining
(Charles Harker, Steve Rugare, Ellen Sullivan)

5/3

10:00am

Thom Nester—Public Space and the Effects of Digital Culture
(David Jurca, Greg Stroh, Steve Rugare)

5/6

10:30am

Matt Provolt—TopoCity: Sheraden Neighborhood, Pittsburgh
(Ellen Sullivan, Charles Graves, Sagree Sharma)

1:00pm

Brandon Young—Revising Richard Florida: Creative/Productive Space for Cleveland
(Diane Davis-Sikora, Jonathan Kurtz, Terry Schwarz)

5/7

9:00am

Sarah Myers—From Waste to Pop Up: a Temporary Diversion from the Landfill
(Jonathan Fleming, Charles Frederick, Terry Schwarz)

10:30am

Gabriel Fey—New Futures for the Infrastructural City
(Steve Rugare, Jonathan Fleming, Jonathan Kurtz, Jacqueline Mills)

1:00pm

Troy Eklum—Transit Based Metropolitan Master Planning: Developing a Large Scale Strategy for Growth and Mobility Patterning
(Ellen Sullivan, Charles Frederick, Steve Rugare)

5/8

1:00pm

Arthur Schmidt—Beyond Complete Streets: a Methodology for Designing a Complete Urban Street System
(Steve Rugare, Jeff Kruth, Stephanie Ryberg-Webster, Daniel Vieyra)

3:30pm

5/9

Tommy Chesnes—Neighborhood Tuning: Waterloo Arts District, Cleveland
(Terry Schwarz, Wayne Mortensen, Ellen Sullivan)

All reviews are free and open to the public. The CUDC is located at 1305 Euclid Avenue (buzz for entry). Directions and other information at www.cudc.kent.edu. Contact srugare@kent.edu for more information.