

MASTER OF URBAN DESIGN CAPSTONE PROJECT FINAL REVIEWS SPRING 2014

5/7

9:00am

Nadia Salman – The Baghdadi Identity: Defining Suitable Elements of Architectural Identity in Baghdad

(Adil Sharag-Eldin, Steve Rugare, Sagree Sharma)

10:30am

Derek Behm—Urban Chaos (Tyler Village Area, Cleveland)

(David Jurca, Ellen Sullivan, Steve Rugare, Julie Whyte)

1:00pm

Pasquale Esposito—The Parallax City: Positioning Vertical Urbanism in a Modern World Capital (Washington, DC)

(Jeffrey Kruth, Steve Rugare, Ellen Sullivan, Jon Yoder)

2:30pm

Neil Reindel—Layering Data Space with Material Place

(Greg Stroh, David Jurca, Ellen Sullivan, William Willoughby)

5/8

9:00am

Claire Markwardt—Car Parks as Ecological Hubs

(Reid Coffman, Lisa Benjamin, Charles Graves, Adil Sharag-Eldin)

2:30pm

Joshua Thomas—Adaptive Reuse of Urban Industrial Archetypes: Addressing Sustainable Design and Solar-Voltaic Potential

(Adil Sharag-Eldin, Reid Coffman, Steve Rugare)

4:30pm

Chris Dohar—A Future for Brownfield Typology: Collinwood Neighborhood Study

(Reid Coffman, Terry Schwarz, Ellen Sullivan)

6:00pm

Closing Reception - a chance to view all the projects and enjoy some light refreshments

All reviews are free and open to the public. The CUDC is located at 1309 Euclid Avenue (buzz for entry). Directions and other information at www.cudc.kent.edu. Contact srugare@kent.edu for more information.